Camp Nakamun Guidelines for Indoor Gatherings – Fall 2020

COVID-19: Camp Nakamun is complying to all current Public Health Guidelines and Restrictions that have been set forth by the Alberta Chief Medical Officer and Alberta Health. All sites and accommodations will be cleaned and sanitized as required between each rental. At this time all camp buildings not related to groups are closed. Specific guidelines related to physical distancing and other COVID related restrictions are posted throughout the camp. All guests are responsible for adhering to all public health orders. Failure to do so may result in a fine and/or eviction from the campground at the discretion of Camp Nakamun Leadership.

Maximum number of people per group

- 50 people per group indoors

Accommodations

- Separate buildings for accommodations if more than one group is on site at the same time
- Each accommodation must house only one cohort or family. The leader for each group is responsible for overseeing the designation of people
Overnight groups are restricted to adult groups, family groups or cohorts at this time

Meeting Room

- Main meeting rooms will be Lakeview Hall or the Poplar Room (Chapel may be available if not needed for a dining room)

Meal Times

- Each group will have a designated time and place to eat each meal (Dining Room or Chapel)
- Each group will have a designated side of the serving area to go through, and each person in the group will follow COVID protocol by sanitizing before coming into the dining room, and following 6ft physical distancing. Everyone must wear a mask when going through the serving line.

Activities

- Activities must be booked ahead of time and will have a maximum of 15 people per hour per activity (exception is the barge – 16 people can be on the barge at a time)
- All participants and facilitators will hand sanitize before activities and all will wear a mask. All activities are weather dependent

Common Areas in the Camp

- All common areas such as the lobby or games area will be off limits at this time, however the coffee bar will open for certain hours each day, with a limit of 25 people in the area at a time. It is expected that people follow COVID protocol with sanitizing and physical distancing. Coffee and tea will be available during meal times and the espresso bar will be open for certain hours each day
- The gym can be reserved for groups but must be booked ahead of time. The pool and hot tub are closed at this time.
